

No. R(J) 93/2021

High Court of Karnataka,
Bengaluru,
Date: 30/08/2021.

CIRCULAR

The Hon'ble Division Bench headed by Hon'ble The Chief Justice vide order dated 16/08/2021 in WP No.3617/2021 has made certain observations and directions with respect to filing of the written arguments, which reads as under;

“Today, it is brought to our notice that the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has filed written arguments and along with the written arguments, large number of documents have been filed.

Firstly, the petitioner has no right to file written arguments unless the Court expressly permits the same. In this case, no such permission is granted. Secondly, if the petitioner wants to rely upon the additional documents, the petitioner will have to take out an appropriate application. As the written arguments are taken on record without a specific order of the Court, we direct the Registrar (Judicial) to return the written arguments.

Registrar (Judicial) will issue a circular that unless an ordinary copy of a specific order of the Court permitting filing of the written arguments is produced along with the written arguments, the same shall not be accepted.

To enable the petitioner to file I.A, we adjourn this petition till 8th September 2021”.

Therefore, the Officers and Officials working on the judicial side at Principal Bench, Bengaluru, Benches at Dharwad and Kalaburagi are hereby directed not to accept the Written Arguments unless an ordinary copy of a specific order of the Court permitting filing of the written arguments is produced alongwith the written arguments.

The above procedure shall be followed scrupulously.
